

Topic 2 : Sandy Chen-Blake (Associate Professor, Electronic Resources Librarian, Azusa Pacific University Libraries)

Sandy Chen-Blake

Associate Professor, Electronic Resources
Librarian, Azusa Pacific University Libraries

Phone: (626) 815-6000, Ext. 5777

Email: wchen@apu.edu

Education :

M.L.S. (Master of Library Science), Emporia State University

M.A. (Master of Education) University of Missouri – Kansas City

B.S. (Library Science) Fu Jen Catholic University, Taipei, Taiwan

Ms. Chen is a 1983 graduate of Fu Jen University and took her library degree from Emporia State University in Kansas, USA. She has worked as a cataloger and electronic resources and serials librarian at several universities in the United States. She has done presentations in her areas of expertise at conferences of the American Library Association, Arizona Library Association, ER &L (Electronic Resources and Libraries) and PLA (Pennsylvania Library Association). She frequently gives talks and demonstrations on Chinese culture and language at civic groups, church and schools. She is married to Dr. Richard Blake.
